Hungary – General Information

CHANGE IN THE HOLIDAY CALENDAR

17 November 2026

According to a new ministerial decree, 24 December will officially become a public holiday in Hungary from 2026. As a result, the previously designated substitute working day on Saturday, 12 December 2026 has been eliminated, and the day will no longer be a working day.

In line with this change, Hungarian market infrastructures, including local banks and the Central Securities Depository (CSD), will be closed on Saturday, 12 December 2026.

The updated UniCredit Bank Holiday Calendar 2026 will be circulated through the usual communication channels in due course.
