

Starting today,
28 million Europeans have something new. A bank.

The first true European bank is born: 28 million customers and 7,000 branches in 19 countries. A big group, created by the shared vision of professionals from many different banks, markets and countries. And, thanks to the recent business combination of UniCredit Group with HVB Group, a strong and unified group, with exceptional assets of both culture and knowledge. A bank truly dedicated to Europe's people and enterprises.
