General information

New double taxation treaty between Croatia and Egypt entered into force

8 April 2024

Summary: Double Taxation Treaty (DTT) concluded between Croatia and Egypt entered into force on 01 March 2024 and will be effective as of 1 January 2025.

The applicable rates according to the DTT are as follows:

- Dividends: 10%
- Dividends: 5%, if the beneficial owner is a company (other than a partnership) that owns at least 20% of the assets of the company that pays the dividend during period of 365 days including the day of the dividend payment.
- Interest: 10%

Impact on investors: Eligible tax residents of Croatia and Egypt will be able to enjoy preferential DTT rates as of 1 January 2025.
