Romania – Technical Incident

11 March 2026

Yesterday, Unicredit Bank Romania has experienced a technical incident. As a result, certain delays may occur in the execution of transactions and payments, the updating of account balances, the processing of foreign exchange operations, and the funding of credit cards.

We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this may cause and assure you that we are taking all necessary measures to fully restore the availability and functionality of all banking services.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

IMPACT ON INVESTORS:

Delays are expected in securities settlement.
