CHANGE TO PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

13 October 2025

The Government and National Council of the Slovak Republic approved amendments to the legislation on consolidation of public finances, which regulates also public holidays.

Act No. 241/1993 on National Holidays, Non-working days and Memorial days has been amended to remove 17 November as a Non-working day. This change took effect in 2025, making this day a regular working day, though it remains an important National Holiday.

Moreover, the government has agreed to cancel the public holiday on 8 May - Victory Day over Fascism – and 15 September - Day of Our Lady of Sorrows – turning them into a regular working day for year 2026.
