APPENDICES – GLOSSARY	19

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The issuer's name and registered office

Name: UniCredit, Società per Azioni

Registered office: Rome, Italy

2. Corporate name or the first and last name, registered office (place of residence) of the seller

Not applicable. The scrip dividend transaction covered by this Information Memorandum does not envisage the sale of the Company's shares.

3. The number, type, nominal value per unit, and designation of the issue of the securities

This Information Memorandum has been prepared in connection with the public offering of up to 255,755,107 ordinary shares – as possibly rectified according to the Adjustment Mechanism hereinafter described – without any nominal value of UniCredit (New Ordinary Shares) to be issued to service the payment of 2015 dividend out of UniCredit's ordinary shares and in relation to an intended application for admission to trading on the regulated market (main market) operated by the WSE of the New Ordinary Shares.

The issue of such New Ordinary Shares (and of the New Savings Shares as defined here below) is instrumental to service the payment of the 2015 dividend from profit reserves of EUR 706,181,777.04 in the form of scrip dividend.

To this end, the New Ordinary Shares and up to 45,938 savings shares of UniCredit ("New Savings Shares") – as possibly rectified according to the Adjustment Mechanism hereinafter described – without any nominal value will be issued by means of a capital increase for no consideration by a maximum amount of EUR 706,181,777.04 conducted pursuant to Article 2442 of the Italian Civil Code by way of transferring to share capital an amount in priority from the "Reserves for distribution of profits to shareholders through the issue of new shares for no consideration" as well as, if necessary to perform the capital increase in subject, partly from the "Statutory Reserve". Neither the New Ordinary Shares nor the New Savings Shares will be divided into series. The New Ordinary Shares and the New Savings Shares issued in implementation of the capital increase will have the same characteristics, and enjoy similar rights, as of their corresponding outstanding shares (godimento regolare).

The New Ordinary Shares will be assigned to holders of UniCredit ordinary shares, whereas the New Savings Shares will be assigned to holders of UniCredit savings shares who have not previously waived their right to such assignment. As possibly rectified according to the Adjustment Mechanism hereinafter described, the New Shares will be issued in the following proportions:

- 1 New Ordinary Share for every 23 ordinary shares already owned, excluding from the assignment 47,600 ordinary shares already owned by UniCredit (treasury shares) and 96,756,406 ordinary shares underwritten by Mediobanca – Banca di Credito Finanziario S.p.A. on February 23, 2009 used to service the issue of "CASHES" instruments;
- 1 New Savings Share for every 54 savings shares already owned.

These ratios were fixed by the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting of UniCredit held on April 14, 2016 based on the proposal approved by the Board of Directors on February 9, 2016 (and published in Poland on March 16, 2016) pursuant to which the New Shares should be assigned in accordance with the cash equivalent principle and therefore, the capital increase for no consideration should be implemented through the issue of a maximum number of the New Ordinary Shares and the New Savings Shares determined on the basis of a market valuation of such shares. The New Shares would be assigned pursuant to a ratio (the "Assignment Ratio"), different for the two classes of shares, calculated on the basis of the volume-weighted average of the official closing prices of UniCredit shares – respectively ordinary shares and savings shares – recorded on the Electronic Share Market (Mercato Telematico Azionario) of Borsa Italiana S.p.A. during the 5 stock-exchange trading days prior to the date of the Shareholders' Meeting called to vote on this proposal (i.e., April 14, 2016), discounted by 10% and taking into account for the valuation the theoretical dilution effects on the market price of both ordinary and savings shares resulting from the increase in the number of outstanding shares assuming an acceptance ratio of 100% (the "Assignment Value"). The Assignment Ratio takes into account the shares in relation to which no dividend is due (neither in cash nor through the assignment of shares), i.e., 47,600 ordinary shares that are owned by UniCredit as treasury shares and 96,756,406 ordinary shares subscribed for by Mediobanca – Banca di Credito Finanziario S.p.A. on February 23, 2009 used to service the issue of the “CASHES” instruments. These averages are, respectively, EUR 3.0654 for ordinary shares and EUR 7.3221 for savings shares.

The Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting has also delegated the Managing Director to verify and possibly to rectify the Assignment Value in proximity of the Dividend Payment Date. More precisely, the Managing Director shall arrange the calculation of the volume-weighted average of official closing prices recorded on the Mercato Telematico Azionario of Borsa Italiana S.p.A. for the UniCredit ordinary and savings shares in the last 5 stock-exchange trading days of the exercise period (therefore starting such last period for calculation as from April 20, 2016 and ending as at April 26, 2016) and apply to such value a discount equal to that proposed and approved by the Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting that is equal to 10%. Should the value resulting from such calculation be higher than- or equal to- the Assignment Value of the ordinary and/or savings shares, this latter value shall be considered the final assignment value (the “Final Assignment Value”) and the Assignment Ratio shall be considered the final assignment ratio (the “Final Assignment Ratio”) of the mentioned shares. On the other side, should the value resulting from such calculation be lower than the Assignment Value of the ordinary and/or savings shares, such value shall be considered the Final Assignment Value on which the Final Assignment Ratio will be re-calculated (the “Adjustment Mechanism”). It is however understood that in no case the Final Assignment Value will result smaller than the value – respectively for the ordinary and savings shares – applying which the maximum number of shares to be issued would exceed the one approved by the Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting beyond 30% (assuming an assignment rate of the mentioned shares of 100%).

Considering that the Shareholders’ Meeting of UniCredit on April 14, 2016 has determined, respectively, a maximum of no. 255,755,107 the New Ordinary Shares and a maximum of no. 45,938 the New Savings Shares to be issued – as possibly rectified according to the criteria described above – the maximum amount of the capital increase executed through shares assignment will be calculated on the basis of the per share implicit nominal value as on the date of implementation in order to maintain such value unchanged. It remains understood that the amount of the capital increase could not be greater than that of the dividend approved for distribution by the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting, i.e. EUR 706,181,777.04. Therefore, if the amount resulting from the number of shares to be issued on the basis of the Final Assignment Value (determined in compliance with the criteria described above) multiplied by the per share implicit nominal value as on the date of implementation were greater than EUR 706,181,777.04, the per share nominal value of the shares to be issued would result accordingly reduced.

The maximum number of New Shares to be issued, the Final Assignment Value and the Final Assignment Ratio will be disclosed to the market with a press release disseminated by UniCredit. Such press release would be made available on UniCredit’s web site and released to the public in Poland by way of current report immediately after the end of the exercise period and before the Dividend Payment Date. The Company expects that the current report referred to above will be released on April 26, 2016 or soon thereafter.

The envisaged scrip dividend allows to pursue the objective of preserving UniCredit Group’s capital, while at the same time guaranteeing that the shareholders who waive the assignment of the shares will be paid in cash. It is agreed however that the dividend will be paid exclusively with cash, if it is not possible for any reason to implement the capital increase described above.

4. The number, type, nominal value per unit, and designation of the issue of the securities which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market

UniCredit intends to apply to WSE Management Board for the admission of up to 255,755,107 New Ordinary Shares – as possibly rectified according to the Adjustment Mechanism – without any nominal value, to trading on the regulated market (main market) of the WSE. The New Ordinary Shares will be issued under Italian law, based on the Resolution of April 14, 2016 of the UniCredit Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting (Issue Resolution), and will not be divided into series. The New Ordinary Shares issued in implementation of the capital increase will have the same characteristics, and enjoy similar rights, as of their corresponding outstanding shares (godimento regolare). The savings shares are not listed on the WSE and therefore, UniCredit does not intend to apply for trading of the New Savings Shares on the WSE.

Not applicable. UniCredit is a public company.

3. Detailed specification of the types, number and aggregate value of the issued securities

Pursuant to the Issue Resolution, the capital increase for no consideration to service the payment of the 2015 dividend from profit reserves has an aggregate value of maximum EUR 706,181,777.04. The new issue will comprise the total – as possibly rectified according to the Adjustment Mechanism – of up to 255,801,045 New Shares, including up to 255,755,107 New Ordinary Shares and up to 45,938 New Savings Shares. No New Share will have any nominal value.

Due to the purpose and special characteristics of the scrip dividend transaction the requirement to provide an aggregate value of the issued securities does not apply.

4. The issue price of the securities or description of the main factors affecting the issue price of the securities, as well as the rules for determination of the price, or – where there is no issue price – description of changes which will occur in the issuer’s equity following delivery of the shares

Deriving from a capital increase for no consideration the New Shares have no issue selling price.

The UniCredit Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting of April 14, 2016 approved, among other things, the distribution to the shareholders the 2015 dividend from profit reserves equal to EUR 706,181,777.04 in the form of a scrip dividend by using in priority the “Reserves for distribution of profits to shareholders through the issue of new shares for no consideration” as well as, if necessary to perform the capital increase in subject, partly from the “Statutory Reserve”. On the same date the UniCredit Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting adopted the Issue Resolution approving the capital increase for no consideration by the issuance of the New Ordinary Shares and the New Savings Shares.

Should none of those entitled waive the assignment of the shares and require the payment of the scrip dividend in cash, the overall amount of the UniCredit net assets will not undergo any changes. On the contrary, should the assignment of the shares be waived and, as a consequence, should the payment be made in cash, the above assets will suffer a proportional decrease corresponding to the portion of the “Reserves for distribution of profits to shareholders through the issue of new shares for no consideration” as well as, possibly, of the “Statutory Reserve” utilised for the distribution concerned, up to a theoretical maximum amount of EUR 706,181,777.04 in case all those entitled exercise such option.

The capital increase for no consideration will not produce economic and financial effects, neither with respect to the financial situation represented in December 31, 2015 balance-sheet, nor with respect to the economic performance of the Company.

As the capital increase will be carried out without any consideration, the higher number of outstanding shares after the completion of the scrip dividend transaction will result in a reduction of equity per share.

5. The legal basis for the issue of the securities, along with an indication of the governing body or persons authorized to resolve on the issue of the securities, or the seeking of admission to trading on a regulated market, as well as the date on which such decision was adopted, and its form

The legal basis for the issue and seeking of admission to trading on a regulated market (main market) of the WSE of the New Ordinary Shares is the Resolution of April 14, 2016 of the UniCredit Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting (Issue Resolution).

6. Information on whether the existing shareholders’ pre-emptive rights to acquire the shares will apply, the reasons for exclusion or limitation of the pre-emptive rights, and indication of the persons for whose benefit those rights have been excluded or limited

The New Ordinary Shares and the New Savings Shares will be assigned, respectively, to the shareholders holding ordinary UniCredit shares and those holding savings shares of UniCredit for which dividend is due who have not previously waived their right to such assignment and requested payment of the 2015 dividend in cash.

Information on ordinary shares excluded from the 2015 dividend, including the assignment of the New Ordinary Shares, is provided in Section I.3. above while further information regarding the persons entitled to the assignment of the New Shares – as well as the rules of assignments of the New Shares – is provided in Section II.11. of this Information Memorandum.

7. The dates up to which the shares will carry the right to dividend, and specification of the currency in which dividend payments will be made

The New Ordinary Shares will participate in the dividend for the financial year of January 1, 2016 through December 31, 2016 if such dividend will be decided for distribution by the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting of UniCredit. The dividend will be paid in Euro.

8. In the event of the proposed acquisition or issue of the securities to persons referred to in Article 7 Section 8 Items 2 and 3 and Section 15 Item 2 of the Act on Public Offering: specification of the criteria and conditions to be satisfied by the eligible individuals, as well as the basic terms of the agreement under which the offered securities are made available

Not applicable (please see Sections I.5. and I.6. above). The New Shares will not be offered to eligible individuals referred to in Article 7 Section 8 Items 2 and 3 and Section 15 Item 2 of the Act on Public Offering.

9. The rights attached to the securities, any restrictions on the transfer of such rights, any envisaged additional performance by the buyer for the benefit of the issuer, as well as any obligation of the buyer or seller, provided for in the articles of association or in the applicable laws, to obtain an authorization or to make a notification

9.1. General remarks

Additionally, information on exercising rights attached to the Company's shares is published by UniCredit in compliance with procedures specified by relevant provisions of Italian law. However, due to the fact that Company's shares are admitted to trading on the WSE, with regard to certain issues some Polish regulations will also be applicable. In particular, if Polish regulations so require or UniCredit considers it necessary, information addressed to persons who hold the shares in UniCredit through the NDS participants (i.e., through investment firms or other entities that act as participants of the clearing and depository system operated by the NDS on the basis of agreements signed with the NDS) will be published in Poland within respective terms in the form of current reports, according to a procedure referred to in Article 56 Section 1 in conjunction with Article 56 Section 6 of the Act on Public Offering.

UniCredit's shares are traded on regulated markets in Italy, Germany and Poland. Differences in settlement and clearing systems, trading currencies, transaction costs and other factors may hinder the transferability of the shares between stock exchanges which could adversely affect trading in the Company's shares on the stock exchanges and increase their price volatility and/or adversely affect the price and liquidity of the shares. As a result, the execution of certain rights attached to the New Ordinary Shares by shareholders from Poland or countries other than Italy may prove to be more burdensome and/or more expensive than in the case of a company incorporated in Poland.

As the assignment of the Company's shares within the scrip dividend transaction envisages no additional performances by the Company's shareholder for the benefit of UniCredit, this Section of the Information Memorandum does not include a description of additional performances by the acquirer of the Company's shares for the benefit of the Company.

The description of Italian and Polish laws and regulations included in this Section of the Information Memorandum is of a general nature. Therefore the following summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of Italian and Polish laws and regulations applicable to the scrip dividend transaction which may be relevant to taking a decision concerning the receipt of a dividend in the form of the New Ordinary Shares.

9.2. Certain applicable Italian laws and regulations

9.2.1. Shareholders' Meeting

Pursuant to Article 83-sexies, paragraph 2, of the Consolidated Financial Act, all persons for which UniCredit has received a notice from an intermediary, on the basis of the latter's records at closing of business on the seventh trading day prior to the date of the meeting, shall be entitled to attend shareholders' meetings (the record date). Such persons may attend the meeting and vote even if they transfer their shares after the record date. Conversely, the purchaser of the shares after the record date will not be entitled to attend the meeting.

Shareholders must attend shareholders' meetings in person or, subject to the proxy rules of the Consolidated Financial Act, by proxy.

Pursuant to the Consolidated Financial Act, UniCredit shall appoint a single representative for each meeting (rappresentante designato dalla società) to whom shareholders may grant a proxy no later than the end of the second trading day prior to the date of the meeting.

Shareholders are informed of all shareholders' meetings to be held by publication of a notice on UniCredit's website and in accordance with CONSOB's requirements, at least 30 days before the date fixed for the meeting. The required notice period is reduced to 21 days for meetings relating to the reduction of the share capital due to losses or below the statutory minimum requirement as well as for meetings relating to the resolution envisaged in Article 2487 of the Italian Civil Code. The notice period is increased to 40 days for meetings called for the election of the Board of Directors or the Board of Statutory Auditors. Shareholders are entitled to ask questions regarding the items on the agenda before the date of the meeting to which UniCredit is required to answer at the latest during the meeting. No answer shall be due when the information requested is already available by way of a Q&A posted on UniCredit's website.

Pursuant to the UniCredit's Articles of Association and the Consolidated Financial Act, shareholders who, individually or jointly, represent at least 0.50% of the share capital may request, within ten days of the publication of the notice convening the meeting, the integration of the list of items on the agenda, specifying in the request the additional items they propose or presenting proposed resolution on items already on the agenda.

There are no restrictions arising under Italian law or UniCredit's Articles of Association on the rights of non-resident or foreign persons to hold or vote the shares other than those limitations that apply generally to all shareholders. Ordinary shareholders are entitled to attend and vote at ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings. Each holder will be entitled to cast one vote for each share held.

Under Italian law, shareholders' meetings may be either ordinary or extraordinary.

Ordinary shareholders' meetings must be convened at least once a year within 180 days of the financial year end in order to resolve on the matters submitted to the vote of the shareholders under applicable law and UniCredit's Articles of Association.

At ordinary shareholders' meetings, shareholders may approve the financial statements; approve the distribution of dividends, if any; appoint and remove directors; appoint statutory auditors and external auditors; decide their remuneration; approve the remuneration policies for supervisory, management and control bodies as well as for employees and the incentive plans based on the financial instruments; vote on directors' and statutory auditors' liability; approve the regulations governing general meetings; and decide on any other business matter submitted to the vote of the shareholders in accordance with applicable law and UniCredit's Articles of Association. In general, at duly called and set up ordinary shareholders' meetings resolutions may be approved by an affirmative vote of the majority of the ordinary shares represented at the meeting, or any greater percentage provided in UniCredit's Articles of Association.

Extraordinary shareholders' meetings may be called in order to pass upon, among other things, proposed amendments to UniCredit's Articles of Association; capital increases; the appointment, replacement and powers of liquidators; and on any other subject attributed to the meetings' competence by law. For companies listed on the Electronic Share Market (Mercato Telematico Azionario) of Borsa Italiana S.p.A., such proposed resolutions must be communicated to CONSOB prior to the extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

Resolutions at the extraordinary meeting may be adopted by the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the ordinary shares represented at the meeting.

9.2.2. Voting rights and restrictions on voting rights

The New Ordinary Shares entitle holders thereof to vote at the Shareholders' Meetings.

The New Ordinary Shares are subject to the voting restrictions set forth in Clause 5 paragraph 3 of the Articles of Association, pursuant to which no shareholder may vote for a number of UniCredit shares exceeding 5% of share capital bearing voting rights.

The calculation of the 5% holding takes into account the global stake held by the controlling party (whether a private individual, legal entity or company), including all shares held by all direct and indirect subsidiaries and affiliates. Those shareholdings included in the portfolios of mutual funds managed by subsidiaries or affiliates are not, on the other hand, taken into consideration.

Control, including with regard to parties other than companies, emerges in the situations provided for by Article 2359, first and second paragraph, of the Italian Civil Code. Control whereby significant influence is exercised is regarded to be present in the situations provided for by Clause 23, second paragraph, of Legislative Decree no. 385 dated September 1, 1993 (Consolidation Act for Laws Relating to Banking and Lending Activities). An affiliation emerges in the situations referred to in Article 2359, third paragraph, of the Italian Civil Code. For the purposes of computing the stake held, those shares held through custodian companies and/or intermediaries and/or those shares whose voting rights are assigned for any purpose or reason to a party other than their owner, are also taken into consideration.

In the event of the above provisions being breached, any shareholders resolution carried may be impugned pursuant to the provisions of Article 2377 of the Italian Civil Code, where the majority required would not have been reached without this breach. Those shares whose voting rights may not be exercised are in any event computed in order for the Meeting to be properly formed.

9.2.3. Dividend rights

Holders of New Ordinary Shares are entitled to receive (i) dividends which are paid after the approval of the Company's annual financial statements by the Shareholders' Meeting and (ii) advance payments on dividends, if, in accordance with applicable law, the Shareholders' Meeting has passed a relevant resolution. Such payments are made on fixed dates on the basis of the financial calendar approved by the Italian Stock Exchange. In Italy, holders of UniCredit Shares receive their dividend payments and/or their advance payments through the respective shareholder's custodian bank(s).

Pursuant to the Italian Civil Code, the Company must allocate to a mandatory reserve at least 5% of the annual net profits. The minimum amount of such reserve must equal at least 20% of the Company's share capital.

The payment by the Company of any annual dividend is proposed by the Board of Directors and is subject to the shareholders' approval at the annual Shareholders' Meeting.

According to Clause 32 paragraph 2 of the Articles of Association, the Shareholders' Meeting, further to a proposal from the Board of Directors, may assign to the ordinary and savings shareholders the right to require that annual dividends are settled, in whole or in part, in cash or by delivery of ordinary and/or savings shares, having the same entitlements of the shares outstanding at their time of assignment. In case of assignment of such right, the Shareholders' Meeting, further to a proposal from the Board of the Directors, shall determine the criteria for the calculation and assignment of the shares, establishing the form of settlement of the dividend payment in case of non-exercise of such right by the shareholders.

Dividends are payable on the dividend payment date to those persons who, on the record date (i.e. April 19, 2016 with respect to the payment of 2015 dividend), hold the shares through an intermediary on the dividend payment date. Dividends not claimed within five years of the dividend payment date are forfeited to the benefit of the Company. Dividend payments are distributed through Monte Titoli on behalf of each shareholder by the intermediary with whom the shareholder deposited its shares.

9.2.4. Pre-emptive rights in offerings of securities of the same class

Pursuant to Italian law, shareholders (and holders of convertible bonds) are entitled to subscribe for new issues of: (i) ordinary shares; (ii) debt instruments convertible into ordinary shares; and (iii) any other instruments such as warrants, rights or options entitling the holder to acquire ordinary shares, in each case in proportion to their respective shareholdings or bondholdings, as the case may be.

Subject to certain conditions and special voting majorities principally designed to prevent dilution of the rights of shareholders, these pre-emptive rights may be waived or limited in whole or in part for all shareholders of a particular issue of securities, but only by way of a resolution adopted at an extraordinary meeting with the majorities required by the law. In particular, for ordinary shares of Italian companies listed in Italy, the articles of association may exclude the right of pre-emption for up to 10% of the share capital, provided that the issue price of the ordinary shares issued without pre-emptive rights corresponds to the market value of the ordinary shares and this is confirmed by an auditor or an audit firm. In any event, such pre-emptive rights will not apply where the increase in share capital is to be subscribed by way of a contribution in kind.

9.2.5. Redemption provisions

The Italian Civil Code sets forth the redemption provisions applicable to the shares upon the relevant shareholder's exercise of its withdrawal rights.

Each shareholder may, by law, exercise its withdrawal right for either the whole or a part of its shareholding if such shareholder has not voted in favor of resolutions on any the following items:

- (i) an amendment to the Company's purpose significantly changing the Company's activity;
- (ii) a change to the Company's form;
- (iii) relocation of the Company's registered office outside Italy;

- (iv) revocation of a winding up process;
- (v) removal from the Articles of Association of rights of withdrawal provided by the Articles of Association or by law;
- (vi) amendment of share valuation criteria used in connection with withdrawal as set forth in the Articles of Association; and
- (vii) amendments of the Articles of Association relating to voting or participation rights.

Moreover, Clause 33 of the Articles of Association sets forth that shareholders that have not been involved in the approval of resolutions regarding the extension of the Company's duration or the introduction or removal of restrictions imposed upon the circulation of shares may not exercise the right of withdrawal.

With respect to listed companies, if a resolution is proposed to the Shareholders' Meeting to exclude such a company from listing each shareholder of such company may withdraw if such shareholder has not voted for the exclusion from listing.

9.2.6. Notifications required from shareholders under Italian law

9.2.6.1. Notification of Acquisition of Ordinary Shares

Pursuant to the Consolidated Financial Act, and CONSOB Regulation No. 11971 of May 14, 1999 as amended and supplemented (the "Issuers' Regulation"), any person whose aggregate shareholding rises above or falls below 3%, or reaches, rises above or falls below 5%, 10%, 15%, 20%, 25%, 30%, 50%, 66.6%, 90% or 95% of the voting share capital of a company listed in Italy, is obliged to notify CONSOB and the listed company within five business days of the transaction or of the date in which such person becomes aware that it has risen above or fallen below such thresholds as a consequence of an amendment of the share capital.

Shareholders failing to give notice cannot exercise the voting rights attributable to the ordinary shares. Any shareholders' resolution approved in violation of the foregoing may be annulled if it would not have been adopted in the absence of such votes (also on the basis of an action brought by CONSOB).

The Issuers' Regulation also provides that any person holding less than 2% of the voting share capital of a company listed in Italy is subject to a notification obligation when such person is party to a shareholders' agreement and, taking into account the holdings of the other parties to the agreement, reaches, exceeds or falls below the 5%, 10%, 15%, 20%, 25%, 30%, 50% and 66.6% thresholds.

Further specific conditions and exemptions relating to notifying on the acquisitions of shares are detailed in the Consolidated Financial Act and in CONSOB regulations.

9.2.6.2. Shareholders' Agreements

In accordance with Italian law, an agreement among shareholders of a company listed in Italy or its parent company must be notified to CONSOB within five days of the date of execution of the agreement; published in summary form in the press; filed with the Companies' Register in which the company office is registered; and notified to the relevant listed company.

The disclosure obligations shall not apply to agreements regarding shareholdings totaling less than the 3% of the voting share capital.

Failure to comply with the above rules will render the agreements null and void and the voting rights of the relevant ordinary shares will not be exercisable. Any shareholders' resolution adopted in violation of this limitation on voting rights may be annulled by the relevant court, also on the basis of an action brought by CONSOB, if the resolution would not have been adopted in the absence of such votes.

These rules apply to any and all agreements that:

- regulate the exercise of the voting rights in listed companies or their controlling entities;
- require prior consultation for the exercise of voting rights in a listed company or its controlling companies;
- contain limitations on the transfer of ordinary shares or securities which grant the right to purchase or subscribe for ordinary shares;

- provide for the purchase of ordinary shares or securities which grant the right to purchase or subscribe for ordinary shares;
- are aimed at favoring or frustrating a takeover bid or exchange tender offer; or
- have as their object or effect the exercise, including joint exercise, of a dominant influence over the company.

9.2.7. Form of the New Ordinary Shares and their transferability

Like all financial instruments traded on regulated Italian markets, the New Ordinary Shares are traded on a dematerialized basis. The New Ordinary Shares are deposited in book-entry form at Monte Titoli. Holders of New Ordinary Shares do not have any right to receive share certificates.

As a general rule, the New Ordinary Shares are freely transferable. To transfer an interest in New Ordinary Shares, the transferor and the transferee are required to give instructions to their respective intermediaries. If the transferee is a client of the transferor's intermediary, the intermediary will simply transfer the New Ordinary Shares from the transferor's account to the account of the transferee. If the transferee is a client of another intermediary, the transferor's intermediary will instruct the centralized clearing system to transfer the New Ordinary Shares to the account of the transferee's intermediary, which will then register the New Ordinary Shares on the transferee's account.

9.3. Certain applicable Polish laws and regulations

Trading in public company's shares in Poland is subject, in particular, to the regulations contained in the Act on Public Offering, the Polish Act on Trading in Financial Instruments of July 29, 2005 (consolidated text in Dziennik Ustaw 2014.94, as amended), and secondary regulations issued thereunder. Taking into account the purpose and special characteristics of the scrip dividend transaction this Section of the Information Memorandum is limited solely to a general overview of the selected notification obligations relating to the acquisition and disposal of significant blocks of shares in a public company, as defined in the Act on Public Offering (i.e. a company in which at least one share is registered with the NDS).

Shareholders are urged to seek legal advice prior to acquiring any significant block of shares in the Company or entering into any agreement with other shareholders with respect to exercising voting rights vested by such shares.

9.3.1. Notification obligations relating to significant blocks of shares in public companies

Pursuant to the Act on Public Offering, any person who: (i) reaches or exceeds 5%, 10%, 15%, 20%, 25%, 33%, 33⅓%, 50%, 75% or 90% of the total number of votes in a public company; or (ii) holds at least 5%, 10%, 15%, 20%, 25%, 33%, 33⅓%, 50%, 75% or 90% of the total number of votes in such a company, and as a result of reducing this share reaches, respectively, 5%, 10%, 15%, 20%, 25%, 33%, 33⅓%, 50%, 75% or 90% or less of the total number of votes, is obliged to promptly notify the PFSA and the relevant public company of this fact, no later than four business days from the date of learning about the change in their share in the total number of votes, or could have learned by exercising due care, and in the case of a change resulting from the acquisition of shares in a public company in a transaction concluded on a regulated market, no later than six trading days from the date of the transaction.

The obligation to notify the PFSA and the public company shall also arise in the event of: (i) a change in the share already held of more than 10% of the total number of votes, by at least: (a) 2% of the total number of votes in the case of a public company whose shares have been admitted to trading on the official stock market; or (b) 5% of the total number of votes in the case of a public company whose shares have been admitted to trading on a regulated market other than the official stock exchange market; and (ii) a change in the already held share of more than 33% of the total number of votes in a public company, by at least 1% of the total number of votes.

The notification may be prepared in English.

The requirement to notify the PFSA and the public company does not arise if upon the settlement in the depository for securities of a number of transactions executed on a regulated market on a single day, the change in the share of the total number of votes in the public company at the end of the settlement day does not result in reaching or exceeding any threshold which triggers the obligations referred to above.

A public company is required to promptly pass any information received from its shareholders in exercising the obligations described above, simultaneously, for publication, to the PFSA and to the company operating the regulated market on which the company's shares are listed.

9.3.2. Special instances relating to significant blocks of shares in public companies

The obligations relating to significant blocks of shares in public companies discussed in Section above apply, among others (i) also, jointly on all parties to a written or oral agreement regarding the acquisition of shares in public company or voting in concert at the shareholders' meeting or carrying out a consistent policy towards a public company, even if only one of such entities undertook or intended to undertake actions giving rise to such obligations; and (ii) parties to an agreement referred to in the preceding item, which hold the number of shares in a public company which ensures that a given threshold of the total number of votes specified in the provisions of the Act on Public Offering has been jointly reached or exceeded.

In the instances specified above, the obligations set out in the provisions of the Act on Public Offering concerning significant blocks of shares in public companies may be implemented by one of the parties to the agreement designated by the parties to the agreement.

The Act on Public Offering assumes certain instances where an agreement referred to above under item (i) is deemed to exist.

The number of votes which give rise to the obligations referred to in the Act on Public Offering with respect to significant blocks of shares in public companies, includes, among others, on the part of the dominant entity – the voting rights held by its subsidiaries.

10. Parties to the firm commitment or stand-by underwriting agreements and the material provisions thereof, if the issuer has entered into such agreements

Not applicable. The Company has not entered into agreements referred to in this Section II.10.

11. Rules of distribution of securities

The assignment of shares to UniCredit's shareholders is purely instrumental to the payment of the scrip dividend resolved upon by the Shareholders' Meeting held on April 14, 2016. Therefore, the assignment of shares to the eligible UniCredit shareholders who have not previously waived their right to such assignment and requested to receive the 2015 dividend in cash does not require payments against the shares, subscribing for the shares (filing in the subscription form) or making any statement by the eligible shareholder.

The right of shareholders to waive the assignment of the shares and request payment of the dividend in cash may be exercised within the exercise period starting from April 19, 2016 until April 26, 2016 and which period may be extended by the Company. As regards the exercise period specifically for Polish shareholders (as defined below in Section II.11.1.) please see Section II.11.4. of this Information Memorandum.

11.1. General rules on the assignment of the New Ordinary Shares

On the territory of the Republic of Poland the persons eligible for the assignment of the New Ordinary Shares are those of UniCredit's shareholders who have any ordinary shares of UniCredit recorded on their accounts kept by NDS participants ("Polish shareholders") at the end of business on April 19, 2016. Where ordinary shares are acquired in a session transaction on the WSE, such shares will carry the right to being assigned the New Ordinary Shares only if they are credited to the relevant securities account kept by an NDS participant no later than on April 19, 2016. Pursuant to the Directors' Report published by the Company in Poland in the form of a current report No. 15/2016 on March 17, 2016, UniCredit ordinary shares will be listed on the WSE (as well as on the Italian and Frankfurt Stock Exchanges) starting from April 18, 2016 without the right to receive the 2015 dividend (and therefore without entitlement to be assigned the New Ordinary Shares). In relation to the foregoing, starting from April 18, 2016 the price of UniCredit shares on the WSE will be listed with the annotation "ex dividend" which means that the ordinary shares acquired during session transactions executed starting from April 18, 2016 will not carry the right to receive the 2015 dividend (and therefore will not entitle to assign the New Ordinary Shares).

The New Ordinary Shares will be assigned to the shareholders via Monte Titoli. The New Ordinary Shares will be delivered by Monte Titoli to its participants on May 3, 2016 (which has been established by UniCredit as the payment date ("Dividend Payment Date")) and the Monte Titoli participants will promptly deliver the New Ordinary Shares to their participants. The New Ordinary Shares will be recorded on accounts kept by the NDS for its participants promptly upon the registration of the New Ordinary Shares on accounts kept for the NDS by the participant of Monte Titoli, i.e. Clearstream Banking Luxembourg. As May 3, 2016 is a public holiday in Poland, the Company expects that the New Ordinary Shares will be recorded on accounts kept by NDS participants on May 4, 2016 or soon thereafter, subject to procedures applied by Monte Titoli, its participants and the NDS.

Please note that the scrip dividend transaction envisages the priority assignment of profits to the shareholders by way of assignment of the New Shares. Therefore, if the Polish shareholder will not waive his right to receive the 2015 dividend in the New Ordinary Share and will not request the payment of the scrip dividend in cash (please see Section II.11.4. below) he will receive dividend in the New Ordinary Shares, with respect to which such shareholder will not be required to take any action since the assignment of the New Ordinary Shares to such Polish shareholder will be made automatically.

The above rules apply solely to the assignment of the New Ordinary Shares. The rules applying to the fractions of shares are provided below in Section II.11.2. See also Section II.11.5. below “—Recommendation to Polish shareholders”.

11.2. General rules applying to fractions of shares

Pursuant to the Issue Resolution, each shareholder of UniCredit will be granted 1 New Ordinary Share for 23 ordinary shares held (Assignment Ratio). In parallel, the Extraordinary Shareholders’ Meeting has granted the rectification faculty to the Managing Director of the Company as described in Section I.3. (Adjustment Mechanism). As a result of applying the Adjustment Mechanism, the Assignment Ratio may be rectified (Final Assignment Ratio). The Final Assignment Ratio will be disclosed to the market with a press release disseminated by UniCredit. Such press release would be made available on UniCredit’s web site and released to the public in Poland by way of current report immediately after the end of the exercise period and before the Dividend Payment Date. The Company expects that the current report referred to above will be released on April 26, 2016 or soon thereafter.

If the application of the Final Assignment Ratio results in the assignment of a non-integer number of New Ordinary Shares, the fractions of shares will not be assigned. Given the inability to assign fractions of shares, on April 15, 2016 UniCredit instructed Monte Titoli to provide its participants (and through them also to the Polish shareholders) cash equivalents for their fractions of shares (please see Section II.11.3. below).

UniCredit shareholders who receive the 2015 dividend in New Ordinary Shares will be entitled only to round down the integer number of New Ordinary Shares received and not to round it up. This means that fractions of shares will be only sold on behalf of shareholders (through Monte Titoli) and such shareholders will receive the relevant cash equivalents for their fractions of shares. No internal settlement of the fractions of shares within the participants will be possible.

11.3. Cash equivalent for fractions of shares

The amount of the cash equivalent corresponding to fractions of shares will be determined based on the Final Assignment Value described in Section I.3.

Each shareholder holding ordinary shares will receive, as an equivalent for the fraction of share assigned to him, cash amount equaling a fraction of the Final Assignment Value corresponding to the fraction of share. For the purpose of calculating the cash equivalent, the value of the fraction of share will be established with the accuracy of two decimal places (with numbers being rounded up or down). The cash equivalent will be remitted to the shareholder’s account kept in Poland, free from any costs and fees. In order to ensure that the cash equivalents for the fractions of shares are paid to the shareholders, effective as at May 3, 2016 Monte Titoli will transfer to Monte Titoli participants the respective amount of the Final Assignment Value corresponding to the value of the rights to the fractions of shares so acquired by Monte Titoli. The NDS (and the Polish shareholders using the NDS intermediary) will receive the amount of the settlement of the fractions of shares through the intermediary of a participant of Monte Titoli. Monte Titoli will transfer the amounts representing the portions of the Final Assignment Value due for the fractions of shares to Monte Titoli participants on May 3, 2016, and the Monte Titoli participants will promptly transfer relevant amounts to their own participants for the purpose of distributing these amounts to the shareholders. The NDS will distribute the cash equivalent among its participants by transferring the relevant amounts to their accounts promptly upon receipt of funds from the respective Monte Titoli participant. As May 3, 2016 is a public holiday in Poland, the Company expects that the cash equivalents for the fractions of shares will be remitted to accounts kept for the shareholders in Poland on May 4, 2016 or soon thereafter, subject to procedures applied by Monte Titoli, its participants and the NDS. See also Section II.11.5. below “—Recommendation to Polish shareholders”.

11.4. General rules on the receipt of 2015 dividend in cash

A Polish shareholder entitled to the payment of the scrip dividend who waived his right to be assigned with New Ordinary Shares and requested to receive the 2015 dividend in cash is required to inform the Company of this choice. Such Polish shareholder will be entitled to exercise its choice to receive the 2015 dividend in cash by filing an appropriate instruction with the NDS participant keeping the shareholder's securities account starting from April 19, 2016. As for the end period in which an appropriate instruction on the choice of a Polish shareholder to receive the 2015 dividend in cash should be filed by such a shareholder with the NDS participant keeping this shareholder's securities account please see the last paragraph of this Section.

To the contrary, if the Polish shareholder will not waive the assignment of the shares and, as a result, will not ask to receive the 2015 dividend in cash such shareholder will receive dividend in the New Ordinary Shares, with respect to which such shareholder will not be required to take any action since the assignment of the New Ordinary Shares to such Polish shareholder will be made automatically.

The appropriate amount of the 2015 dividend in cash (rather than with New Ordinary Shares) will be transferred to eligible Polish shareholders by the Company on the Dividend Payment Date via Monte Titoli. Monte Titoli will then deliver it to its participants. The Monte Titoli participants will promptly transfer relevant amounts to their own participants for the purpose of distributing these amounts to the shareholders. The NDS will distribute the appropriate amounts of the 2015 dividend in cash among its participants by transferring the relevant amounts to their accounts promptly upon receipt of funds from the respective Monte Titoli participant, i.e. Clearstream Banking Luxembourg. Therefore and due to the public holiday in Poland on May 3, 2016, the appropriate amounts of the 2015 dividend in cash will be remitted to accounts kept for the shareholders in Poland on May 4, 2016 or soon thereafter, subject to the procedures applied by Monte Titoli, its participants and the NDS.

Shareholders of UniCredit, including Polish shareholders who decide on receiving the scrip dividend in cash will be entitled to a dividend equal to EUR 0.12 per share.

Shareholders of UniCredit, including Polish shareholders, cannot receive scrip dividend partially in shares and partially in cash. If a shareholder decides to receive the 2015 dividend in cash (rather than with New Ordinary Shares), this choice will also constitute its waiver of the right to be assigned the New Ordinary Shares resulting from the scrip dividend transaction. If the right to receive the 2015 dividend in cash (rather than with the New Ordinary Shares) is not exercised, those Polish shareholders entitled to do so will receive, on the Dividend Payment Date or soon thereafter, subject to procedures applied by Monte Titoli, its participants and the NDS, the New Ordinary Shares on the basis of the Final Assignment Ratio described under Sections I.3. and II.11.2. above.

It should be noted that information on the chosen form of the dividend (the New Ordinary Shares or cash) will be transmitted by the NDS participants keeping the shareholders' securities accounts to the NDS who in turn will provide such information to Monte Titoli via Clearstream Banking Luxembourg. The ultimate deadline for Monte Titoli to receive information on the chosen form of the dividend (shares or cash) is April 26, 2016, inclusive. Therefore, due to the fact that all these entities need time to collect necessary information and transmit it further in the chain of intermediaries, it cannot be excluded that the deadline for Polish shareholders to waive the assignment of the shares and exercise their right to receive the 2015 dividend in cash may in fact be shorter than April 26, 2016. CONSEQUENTLY, IT IS RECOMMENDED, THAT POLISH SHAREHOLDERS INTERESTED IN THE PAYMENT OF THE 2015 DIVIDEND IN CASH, CONTACT THE NDS PARTICIPANTS KEEPING THEIR SECURITIES ACCOUNTS ON APRIL 19, 2016 OR SOON THEREAFTER TO ADVISE THEMSELVES ON THE ULTIMATE DEADLINE BY WHICH THEY ARE OBLIGED TO INFORM THE NDS PARTICIPANTS KEEPING THEIR SECURITIES ACCOUNTS ON THEIR CHOICE TO WAIVE THE ASSIGNMENT OF THE SHARES AND RECEIVE 2015 DIVIDEND IN CASH.

11.5. Recommendation to Polish shareholders

The procedures described above require the cooperation of many entities, including the NDS, the Monte Titoli participant representing the NDS (i.e. Clearstream Banking Luxembourg) and Monte Titoli. For this reason and given the fact that the NDS is not a direct participant of Monte Titoli, the transferring of the New Ordinary Shares, the cash equivalents for the fractions of shares or a payment of a dividend in cash to the Polish shareholders may occur later than with respect to other shareholders.

It is recommended that Polish shareholders of UniCredit who have ordinary shares recorded on their securities accounts kept by NDS participants contact in advance the respective NDS participants holding their securities accounts in order to obtain detailed information related to the scrip dividend transaction, including in particular the ultimate deadline by which Polish shareholders may exercise their right to receive the 2015 dividend in cash, the form in which the shareholders' choice to receive scrip dividend in cash should be made as well as the exact dates when Polish shareholders will receive the New Ordinary Shares, the cash equivalents for the fractions of shares or dividend in cash.

12. Information on whether the issuer will grant any loans, collateral or advance payments, or will otherwise finance, directly or indirectly, the acquisition of or subscription for the shares it is issuing Information covered by this Section is provided in Section II.4. of this Information Memorandum.

13. Indication of the regulated market where the issuer intends to introduce the securities covered by the memorandum to trading, along with the planned date of their first listing

UniCredit intends to introduce the New Ordinary Shares to trading on the regulated market (main market) of the WSE.

The Company intends to cause the listing of the New Ordinary Shares on the WSE on or about May 5, 2016.

SELECTED POLISH TAX CONSIDERATIONS

This Section is an overview of selected Polish income tax considerations for the share capital increase out of company funds and distribution to the shareholders of the new shares for no consideration as well as for the dividend paid in cash, that are relevant to a shareholder resident in Poland or that is otherwise subject to Polish taxation. It does not purport to be complete with respect to all tax information that may be relevant to shareholders due to their personal circumstances. This section should also not be deemed to constitute tax advice. Each shareholder should consult his own professional tax advisor. This section is based on Polish tax laws and their interpretation as at the date of this Information Memorandum, thus it may be subject to change, including a change with retroactive effect, which may negatively affect tax treatment. The term "dividend" and any other terms shall have the same meaning as ascribed to them under Polish tax law.

Share capital increase out of company funds and – in consequence – distribution to the shareholders of the new shares for no consideration is a tax-triggering event under Polish income tax law that, as a rule, raises the income tax obligation on the side of the company's shareholders (it is treated in a similar manner as dividend payment). The equivalent of the amounts transferred to the share capital from other capitals (funds) of the company (as defined by the Polish tax law) constitutes a taxable income (revenue) from a share of the profits of legal persons.

Taxation of income (revenues) of personal income tax payers subject to unlimited tax liability in Poland

Income (revenues) earned on a share of the profits of legal persons without registered offices in Poland (including income from dividends) by natural persons subject to unlimited tax liability in Poland is subject to a flat 19% income tax rate on the revenue earned. The entity providing the aforesaid income (revenues) to the taxpayer by making a disbursement or making cash or cash equivalents available to the taxpayer ("tax remitter") is required to, in particular, withhold a flat rate income tax. Given that foreign entities are, in practice, not responsible for withholding Polish income tax, it can be expected that the Polish income tax will not be withheld by such entity. In such case, the natural person is obliged to settle the tax personally in his annual return.

According to the DTT, dividends (as defined therein) paid by a company being a resident of Italy to Polish resident may be taxed both in Poland and Italy, but if the recipient is the beneficial owner of the dividends, the Italian tax so charged cannot exceed 10% of the gross amount of the dividends. If the beneficial owner of the dividends, being a Polish resident, carries on business in Italy through a permanent establishment situated therein or performs in Italy personal services from a fixed base situated therein and the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment or fixed base, dividends are taxable in Italy according to its law. The DTT provides some specific provisions concerning elimination of the double taxation.

Taxation of income (revenues) of personal income tax payers who are subject to limited tax liability in Poland

Income (revenues) earned on a share of the profits of legal persons without registered offices in Poland, which is earned by individuals subject to limited tax liability in Poland, should not be subject to taxation in Poland.

Taxation of the income (revenues) of corporate income tax payers subject to unlimited tax liability in Poland

If the corporate income tax payers subject to unlimited tax liability in Poland earn income (revenue) also outside the territory of Poland and if that income is taxable in a foreign state and such income is not exempt from taxation, it is combined with the income (revenue) earned in the territory of Poland in a tax return for the tax year concerned. In such case, the amount equivalent to the tax paid in a foreign state may be deducted from the tax calculated on the aggregate income. However, the deducted amount must not exceed the part of the tax calculated before deduction that is proportionately associated with the income earned in a foreign state. Subject to specific conditions listed in the Polish CIT Act, an income tax exemption may apply to income (revenues) from dividends and other revenues on a share of the profits of legal persons without registered offices in Poland earned by persons subject to unlimited tax liability in Poland.

The comments on DTT, presented in the section on taxation of income (revenues) of personal income tax payers shall apply accordingly to the taxation of income (revenues) of corporate income tax payers.

Taxation of income (revenues) of corporate income tax payers subject to limited tax liability in Poland

Income (revenues) earned on a share of the profits of legal persons without registered offices in Poland, earned by taxpayers subject to limited tax liability in Poland, should not be subject to taxation in Poland.
