VOLUNTARY PUBLIC EXCHANGE OFFER LAUNCHED BY UNICREDIT S.P.A. ON ALL ORDINARY SHARES OF BANCO BPM S.P.A.

PRESS RELEASE

ANNOUNCEMENTS RELATED TO THE PUBLIC EXCHANGE OFFER LAUNCHED BY UNICREDIT ON THE SHARES OF BANCO BPM

Milan, 27 January 2025 - UniCredit, upon a request by Consob and in connection with the voluntary public exchange offer (the “Offer”) launched on the totality of shares of Banco BPM S.p.A. (“BPM”) announced on 25 November 2024 with a notice pursuant to art. 102 of the TUF (the “Announcement”) gives notice of the following.

- i. The “Relevant Acts Condition” as it has been defined in the Announcement shall be deemed to include, by way of example, acts and/or transactions that do not fall within the normal day-to-day business carried out in accordance with the principles of sound and prudent management, and which may result in a restriction or widening of the perimeter and/or activity of the distribution network, the perimeter of the BPM Group, the organizational and control structures of the Issuer and its subsidiaries, and/or the manner of exercising management and coordination in the BPM Group, such restriction or widening having not been ordinarily provided for at solo level as part of the current strategic plan of the Issuer denominated “2023-2026 Strategic Plan”. This reflects the information framework available to the market at the time of the Announcement, without prejudice to the possibility for the Offeror to make any updates, amendments and/or clarifications in the course of the appraisal procedure relating to the offer document and in compliance with applicable provisions, depending on any developments in the context of reference.
- ii. The requests made pursuant to the sectoral authorizations (Bank of Italy) concerning Anima Holding and the Anima Holding group companies also relate to any qualifying indirect or controlling interests that UniCredit might acquire following the Offer and depending on the outcomes of the public tender offer launched by Banco BPM and Banco BPM Vita over Anima Holding (the “BPM Offer”), without prejudice to the related conditions as set out in the Announcement.
- iii. The premiums implied in the Consideration set out in the Announcement have been calculated on the basis of a comparison between an implicit valuation of the Consideration and the official price of the Issuer, in each case by reference to the same date and to analogous time horizons and, therefore, are consistent with one another.

In particular:

- the implied valuation of the Consideration based on the official price on November 22, 2024 (last trading day prior to the date of the Announcement) and the official 1-month, 3-month, 6-month, and 12-month volume-weighted average traded price of UniCredit prior to that date (inclusive) was compared with the official price as of November 22, 2024, and the official 1-month, 3-month, 6-month, and 12-month volume-weighted average traded price prior to that date (inclusive) of BPM, respectively;
- the implied valuation of the Consideration based on the official price as of November 6, 2024 (the last trading day prior to the announcement of the BPM Offer) and the official volume-weighted average traded price 1 week, 1 month, and 2 months prior to that date (inclusive) of UniCredit was compared with the official price as of November 6, 2024 and the official volume-weighted average traded price 1 week, 1 month, and 2 months prior to that date (inclusive) of BPM, respectively.

The Offeror also provided an indication of the Consideration premium by reference to the official price of the Offeror’s shares and of the Issuer detected on November 6, 2024 (so called “undisturbed” price) having considered that the prices displayed after the announcement of the BPM Offer (i) incorporated value-taking based on the expectation of success of that offer, which, by contrast, was (and still is) a future and uncertain event, even in light of the conditions set forth in the BPM Offer (including, by way of example, that concerning the so-called Danish compromise); and (ii) were influenced by the numerous press articles and rumours related to potential consolidation scenarios in the Italian banking market referable to BPM too.

The table below sets out the official price of the UniCredit share (weighted by traded volumes) referred to over the various time intervals prior to November 22, 2024 (inclusive) and the resulting implied monetary value of the Consideration, which was compared with the official BPM share price (weighted by traded volumes) taken over the same different time intervals, in order to identify the relative premiums (official prices source (VWAP): FactSet)

- iv. Given that all the administrative proceedings related to the Offer are currently under way and in the interest of discussions aimed at the utmost collaboration with all Authorities involved, with regards to the date of UniCredit's shareholders' meeting that will have to approve the share capital increase reserved to the Offer and currently scheduled as indicated in the Announcement on 10 April 2025, it will also be possible to hold such meeting on a different date, to be fixed depending on the practical timing of the administrative proceedings mentioned above. In order to contribute to restoring a complete and correct information picture concerning the Offer and in the interest of the market, with reference to point iii. above, UniCredit deems it necessary to point out that, by means of a press release published on December 17, as well as a press release published on January 24, BPM has disseminated a representation of the premium/discount of the implied valuation of the Consideration with respect to the price of the BPM shares subject to the Offer calculated with reference to a date (December 16, 2024) that (i) does not (insofar as subsequent to the Announcement) have any relevance to the calculation of the Consideration (and the related premium) represented in the Announcement and (ii) cannot be associated with any event relevant to the Issuer, nor to the Offer.

In addition, for the sole purpose of calculating the premium compared to the so-called undisturbed price (i.e., the price as of November 6, 2024), BPM compared the prices of BPM shares and UniCredit shares on different dates between them (November 6 for BPM and November 22 for UniCredit). UniCredit considers it appropriate that market price comparisons should be made on a consistent basis, using unambiguous time references, consistent with proper valuation methodologies and market practice.

Being aware of its obligations towards the market, UniCredit has made and will continue to make disclosures to the market in accordance with this basic principle of fairness.
