Conference on Finance, Labor and Inequality – Capri, 17-18 June 2022

The Centre for Studies in Economics and Finance (CSEF) and the Review of Corporate Finance Studies (RCFS) invite paper submissions on the interaction of financial and labor markets, as well as the impact of finance on inequality. The conference aims to bring together researchers from financial and labor economics to discuss issues from the point of view of both disciplines.

The conference will be held at the “Mario Cacace” Multimedia Center, Via Giuseppe Orlandi 10, Anacapri (Capri), Italy.

Authors are invited to electronically submit papers in PDF format (including abstract, authors’ affiliations, and contact information) to Ms. Stefania Maddaluno at csef@unina.it by April 3, 2022.
